Notes
*	I missed the cutoff time for the 50 miler after getting myself lost a couple of times. My re-directions gave me a little extra mileage at the 25 mile mark. I thought I did check in at 50k finish but there was some confusion happening. I should be finisher 24, one second behind Margaret, we ran up the hill together.
	Jason's advices, Don't take a Redeye flight the night before; don't be caught on the freeway when they close it for an accident, don't stay at a hotel that loses your booking and the have to find another hotel at 2:30 in the morning, then for sure don't run the 5 miles up to the start before the race. Haha I'll try to do better next year.
